What do you see?

Wooden blocks?
Production offcuts?
They are so much more.
Within them lies a new vision: nature, value, uniqueness and a truly unrepeatable character.

Like the block of marble Michelangelo spoke to, seeking to release its essence, its soul and the expressive power hidden within, these small blocks will become your wooden windows, crafted by DMR 1902.

Wooden windows,
each with its own DNA,
bringing technical excellence and aesthetic expression to their fullest potential.

We design and craft windows shaped by experience and made entirely from wood.
Inimitable. Innovative.
Unlike any other.
Just like each of us.

Be unique.
Be different.
Stay true to yourself.
Always original,
like a DMR 1902.

Your ideal partner for solutions, expert advice, reliability, bespoke design, innovation and so much more.
